JOIN US

Come and see what is achievable for your students and children to live their best life possible!

~Inspirational student speakers

~students learning how to self-advocate and

~ designing a journey for the life they want!

2017 Delaware Transition Conference

December 5, 2017 8:00 am - 3:30 pm

Dover Downs Hotel, Dover, Delaware

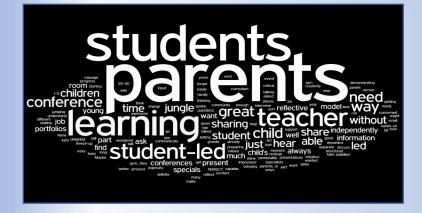

WHY should you be there?

- •Learn how to develop a strength-based lens when co-planning a student's transition plan. It's all in the mindset.
- Network with others sharing the transition journey.
- Hear about the hot careers in our state.
- Gain insight on the reason why there's a transition section of the IEP and find out how to make it dynamic!
- •Build self-confidence in your students/children by developing their voice and before they leave high school!

20.8%

employment rate to youth ages 16-24

US DOL/ODEP July 2017

WHO should be there?

Middle and High School students • Parents • Educators • Special Education Directors • Assistant Principals • Educational Diagnosticians • Guidance Counselors • Case Managers • Vocational Rehabilitation professionals • and other interested supporters Encourage parents to attend with their children

WHERE could I learn more?

Terrific Tuesday Transition

Tips

On Facebook page:
Delaware Transition Conference

- Contact your district's transition coordinator
- Conference Coordinators:
- Dale. Matusevich@doe.k12.de.us
- Sandra.j.miller@state.de.us

#DETransition17

